OF COURSE YOU'LL NEED DIAPERS,
BUT YOU'LL ALSO WANT SOME BIG

Last But Not Least

13 | Playard

Parents use one of these as a bassinet, a changing table, and later, as a modern playpen for a curious toddler. Shown: Chicco Lullaby LX Playard ($190; USA Baby, buybuybaby.com).

14 | Pacifiers

Babies have a sucking reflex that a pacifier can satisfy; in addition, pacifiers are now thought to promote healthy sleep, so use them without guilt. We like the NUK Genius pacifiers ($4 each; Babies "R" Us, Target, Walmart).

15 | Nursing Bra

Did we already mention how much feeding you'll be doing?! Newborns are hungry around the clock. Be prepared with a comfy nursing bra like this Bravado Original, in leopard print ($35; bravadodesigns.com).

16 | Bouncer Seat

You need a safe place to sit your baby so you can shower and get dressed. Bright Starts InGenuity Automatic Bouncer soothes with up to 30 minutes of a bouncing motion ($50; Target).
